Nova Scotia vacations are truly worlds away from anything you've ever experienced. Experience the best of Halifax, the historic heart of the province, where Acadian architecture, galleries, museums, theaters, restaurants, pubs, shopping and entertainment all thrive. Take a tour of the massive star-shaped Halifax Citadel National Historic Site, home to the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic and National Historic Site, or the bustling harbourfront, Halifax Waterfront. Halifax is home to eclectic architecture, galleries, museums, theaters, restaurants, pubs, shopping and entertainment all thrive.

Experience the region’s connection to the sea by learning to “pull” a lobster trap or try world-famous lobster beachside on a Lobster Bay Culinary Adventure. The Acadian Shores have a history dating back over 400 years and contain French-speaking villages like Yarmouth & Acadia Shores. This area is also brimming with history. Sherbrooke Village lets you step back in time. With 25 authentic buildings and costumed interpreters, become a villager for a day and live life 1800s-style.

YARMOUTH & ACADIA SHORES
Be spellbound by seafaring storytellers and live life 1800s-style.

The southwestern most tip of Nova Scotia is renowned for its Acadian architecture, galleries, museums, theaters, restaurants, pubs, shopping and entertainment all thrive. Nova Scotia is a place of remarkable natural beauty and a thriving culture.

To find out more visit NovaScotia.com