EASTERN SHORE
An outdoor enthusiast’s paradise

Stretching from the edges of the Halifax area to the Canso Causeway, Nova Scotia’s Eastern Shore is a place where historically themed attractions, pristine wilderness, comforting cuisine, and a natural paradise come together to create a one-of-a-kind travel experience.

The 100 Wild Islands are a group of over 280 pristine wild islands, between Clam Harbour Beach Provincial Park and Taylor Head Provincial Park. Noted for their historical and ecological significance, most of these islands are now protected in perpetuity. Featured in Canadian Geographic, these islands offer sheltered coves of turquoise water with white sand beaches, dramatic windswept headlands, and unique boreal rainforests, bogs, and barrens. A rich diversity of seabirds, songbirds, and shorebirds also call this area home. Book a kayaking trip with Coastal Adventures, set sail aboard an open whaleboat with Windansea, or relax in a traditional Cape Island boat with Murphy’s Camping on the Ocean to experience this pristine environment. 100wildislands.ca

Step into Nova Scotia’s past at one of the region’s living-history museums—the enduring, authentic late-1800s setting of Sherbrooke Village, or Memory Lane Heritage Village’s depiction of the province’s rural industries in the 1940s. See how a fisherman supported a family of fifteen in the tiny homestead that is now the Fisherman’s Life Museum in Oyster Pond (see page 187).

The Eastern Shore is ideal for a scenic seaside getaway.

Sober Island Brewing, Sheet Harbour
Enjoy Sober Island Brewing’s signature craft brew, Oyster Stout, made with Nova Scotia oysters, while touring the brewery and dining on delicious pub fare of local seafood at The Henley House Pub & Restaurant, located in the same building. Both are members of the Good Cheer Trail and Seafood Trail, respectively (see page 188).

Black Sheep Gallery, West Jeddore
This colourful fish-plant-turned-art-gallery on the shores of Jeddore Harbour includes works from over 40 well-known folk artists, past and present, including Maud Lewis, Joe Sleep, and Barry Colpitts (see page 188).

Hope for Wildlife, Seaforth
Explore the Learning Centre and Wildlife Gardens and get a chance to meet the stars of the TV series as they continue their work to rescue and rehabilitate approximately 1500 injured and orphaned wild animals every year (see page 187).

Not-To-Be-Missed Experiences

The Eastern Shore is marked by the wildness of its coastline, a way of life that recalls days gone by, and the resilience of its people. The attractions below offer visitors the classic Eastern Shore experience.

Step into the life of a fisherman
Fisherman’s Life Museum, Jeddore Oyster Pond
Enjoy a freshly baked molasses cookie while listening to stories about the land, the sea, and the life people led on the Eastern Shore in the early 1900s. This tiny homestead was once home to a family of fifteen (see page 187).

Dine at the Cookhouse
Memory Lane Heritage Village, Lake Charlotte
Sixteen restored buildings offer visitors a nostalgic look at rural Nova Scotia in the 1940s. Be sure to enjoy a traditional cookhouse lunch, complete with homemade brown bread and molasses (see page 187).

Live life 1800s-style
Sherbrooke Village, Sherbrooke
Visit this vibrant museum village with 25 authentic buildings and welcoming costumed interpreters depicting life in the late 1800s. Get dressed in period costume and step into the life of a blacksmith, woodturner apprentice, member of the gentry class, or farmer to see first-hand the important role they played in Sherbrooke Village, while taking part in hands-on activities. Be sure to have your picture taken in Canada’s only ambrotype glass photo studio (see page 187).

It’s a taste bud extravaganza!
The Authentic Seacoast Company, Guysborough
Treat yourself to award-winning spirits and craft beer from this distillery and brewery. Indulge in the rich flavours of Rare Bird Craft Beer, Glynnevan Whisky, or Sea Fever Rum. For a kick of a different kind, try a cup of freshly roasted Full Steam coffee. authenticseacoast.com

Dig for clams
Memory Lane Heritage Village, Lake Charlotte
Meet fourth-generation clam digger Darcy Baker at Memory Lane and hear the stories and history of the Eastern Shore. Get your feet dirty and try your hand at clam digging on the mud flats of Clam Harbour. Then return to Memory Lane for a feed of steamed clams and a homemade heritage lunch (see page 187).

“Mussel” your way through
Murphy’s Scenic Boat Tours, Murphy Cove
Join Captain Murphy aboard his traditional Cape Island boat for a mussel harvesting adventure and scenic tour of the 100 Wild Islands. Weaving along the coast, you’ll enjoy breathtaking views of the rugged coastline and seabirds on your way to the mussel grounds. Bring your rubber boots or sandals and wade out into the shallows to harvest the mussels. A culinary tour wouldn’t be complete without a sampling of your bounty—seafood just can’t get any fresher! (See page 192.)

The Acadian way of life
Acadian House Museum, West Chezzetcook
This charming museum celebrates the history of the Acadian families who settled in this area in the 1850s. The museum also houses La Cuisine de Brigitte tea room, specializing in homemade soups, sandwiches, and scrumptious desserts. Continue your visit by participating in a demonstration such as baking bread in the outdoor oven, making molasses pulled candy or rug hooking (see page 187).

Grassy Island intrigue
Canso Islands National Historic Site, Canso
Your history lesson begins at the Canso Islands’ visitor centre, where life-size dioramas depict 18th-century life and a short film details the former settlement on Grassy Island. Next, take a short, free boat ride (weather permitting, please call ahead) to Grassy Island where you can follow an interpretive walking trail to eight different sites, including the remnants of a stone fort and houses of former island residents (see page 187).
Outdoor Adventures

The Eastern Shore offers explorers an array of off-the-beaten-path adventures for every fitness level. A listing of Eastern Shore’s outdoor opportunities starts on page 188.

Surfing at Lawrencetown Beach
For a true something-to-write-home-about experience, sign up for a surfing lesson near Lawrencetown Beach Provincial Park. These well-established surfing schools have everything you need for your saltwater adventure—wetsuits, boards, and lots of patience. By sundown, they’ll have you feeling the thrill of catching your first wave (see page 188).

Beachcombing and birding at Martinique Beach Provincial Park
Search for beach glass and sand dollars on Nova Scotia’s longest beach, a white-sand crescent that stretches flat and wide for 5 kilometres, with seabirds soaring on the ocean breezes above the dunes. This is also a protected area for the endangered Piping Plover (see page 188).

Swimming at Clam Harbour Beach Provincial Park
The smooth sand and warm tidal stream invite kids of all ages to splash and swim for hours. The rocky coast at the edge of the beach can be explored by way of a nature trail, which runs along other smaller sandy beaches. The site also offers an interpretive display, washroom and changeroom facilities, and a picnic area (see page 188).

Hike or bike the Salt Marsh Trail
This section of the former CN Rail line from Cole Harbour to Lawrencetown and beyond is part of the Trans Canada Trail / The Great Trail system, open to hikers and cyclists. With stunning panoramic views of the salt marsh, it is a coastal birder’s paradise. There are markers for every kilometre of this trail to help you keep track of how far you have travelled, whether choosing 6.5 kilometres one way or a 13-kilometre round trip (see page 40).

Sail the Wild Islands with Windansea
Experience the 100 Wild Islands from the water on an open-air whaleboat. Whether you are looking for a relaxing cruise or a hands-on adventure propelling the boat by wind and oar, you are in for a memorable experience aboard this unique vessel (see page 192).

Cycle the Eastern Shore, Sherbrooke to Guysborough
With relatively low vehicle traffic, this challenging 143 km route is ideal for long rides, unplugging, taking in the coastal scenery and getting back in touch with nature. Join other cyclists at the Lost Shores Gran Fondo on September 8, 2018. Scenic oceanfront loops range from 30 to 120 kilometres in length.

Hiking along the Liscomb River
Put on your sneakers, grab your camera, and head to the Liscomb River Trail System. Over 20 kilometres of inland and coastal trails, featuring waterfalls, a fish ladder, and a swinging bridge, will keep you busy for a couple of hours or the whole day (see page 189). Access the trail system at Liscombe Lodge Resort & Conference Centre.

Kayaking around coastal islands and inlets
The experienced guides at Coastal Adventures in Tangier will lead you to many coastal reefs and islands along the Eastern Shore. You’ll learn about the unique ecology, geology, and human history of these largely undisturbed islands, while paddling past exposed cliffs and dramatic headlands, and into hidden coves of sparkling turquoise water (see page 192).

Strolling the historic Guysborough Waterfront
This self-guided walking tour of Guysborough’s historic waterfront will lead you past a number of heritage buildings and interpretive panels. Tour maps, which include a short history on each building, are available at the Old Court House Museum or at guysboroughhistoricalsociety.ca.

Hike coastal trails at Taylor Head Provincial Park
Located on a rugged, wind-swept peninsula that juts 6 kilometres into the Atlantic Ocean, Taylor Head Provincial Park is a “must-do” for the nature and bird lover. The park’s walking and hiking trails provide access to a variety of natural habitats, extensive granite outcroppings, scenic look-offs, and a large white-sand beach. With its wooded areas and 16 kilometres of coastline, Taylor Head is a haven for wildlife and a variety of breeding and migrating bird species, including Arctic tern, Leach’s petrel, common eider, and Canada goose. The Friends of Taylor Head, a local non-profit society, offers a number of guided walks and nature talks at Taylor Head Provincial Park (see page 189).

Music in the rough in Canso
If you love classic-style outdoor music festivals, the annual Stan Rogers Folk Festival is not to be missed. This event, from July 26 to 29, 2018, is an extravaganza of true folk music legends performing on the knoll, with 1000 campsites set up just for the weekend. stanfest.com
